The Jewish American Heritage & Culture Club presents Fred Miller's Lecture-in-Song – The Other Jewish Songwriters on Sunday, October 31st at 10:00 am in the Canal Walk Ballroom.

Pianist/Singer/Narrator Fred Miller, presents his musical & anecdotal overview of 4 distinguished Jewish personalities in American Popular Music: Arthur Schwartz, Sammy Fain, Burton Lane, and Al Jolson. You may not be familiar with these artists but when you hear their songs sung, you will sing along.

Fred not only performs the songs in question but also provides biographical and historical insight into the life and times of these musical titans.

The cost for this performance will be $10 per person.

Refreshments will be served.

Everything will be done to provide for your safety and comfort. We will all be masked, and the chairs will be spaced apart. THIS PROGRAM IS FOR MEMBERS ONLY. SPACE IS LIMITED. An new member application is attached.
